The Bremen Public Library is challenging all incoming 6th, 7th, and 8th graders to read 100 books before high school! The goal is for you to develop a lifelong reading habit, so there are no assigned books, no book reports, and no grades to worry about. Read whatever you want during middle school for the 100 Books Before High School challenge.

Readers have until the end of 8th grade to finish this challenge. Simply sign up for the challenge on our Beanstack app, or online. Then stop by the library to pick up your reading log. Log every book you complete during this time period. For every 10 books read you will receive a prize. After you complete 100 books you will receive The Ultimate Readers Gift Basket!
